Sports

Interviewer: So, Mr Gray, thank you for your coming to talk to us today. I'd like to start off with the question which is very interesting to me.

Gray: OK, fine.

I: Is there any difference between running and jogging?

G: In reality, there is no difference between running and jogging. Jogging is a term sometimes used for running slowly. Whether you are considering jogging or considering running, all that you need is a little enthusiasm to get started.

I: What should we begin with?

G: Be realistic. Don't run marathon in a three month's time if you've never done it before. Listen to your body. Your level of fitness will determine your starting level. I recommend to start with walk and run for 10 minutes in total. Run and walk every other day gradually reducing the walking time and increasing the running time until you can run for the full 10 minutes.

I: So, 10 minutes a day is enough?

G: I say: listen to your body. If you feel good, I recommend to increase running time by a minute or two every third session, until you can manage 30 minutes three times a week.

I: Is it a sport for all people?

G: Running is available for everyone. If you are healthy you can start to run. But you have a history of diabetes, angina, asthma, epilepsy, high blood pressure, chest pain, then consult your doctor first. Never run when suffering from a viral illness or fever.

I: Do you think it's better to start it in a running club under of instructors control?

G: There are running clubs in most towns and many villages. Most welcome new runners of any standard and all age groups. If you are a competitive and sociable person, a running club is very good for you. But this sport can be personal too. Some people like being on their own.

I: What is the best time for running?

G: You can run any time of the day anywhere you happen to be. When running at night it's safer to run in groups. At night it's important to wear bright colours and reflective clothing.

I: So, clothes are important, aren't they?

G: The most important part of a running wardrobe is a good pair of running shoes. These are available from any good running shop. Clothing should be bright preferably with reflective stripes for running in the dark.

I: Thank you, Dan. We are looking forward to listening to you in our next programme about swimming.

Travelling

Dear sir \ madam,

I'm writing to complain about the Fun Ways Travel holiday my family and I went on last month.

Your newspaper advertisement recommended the holiday as being «Seven fun and sun filled days on a Mediterranean island», so decided it would be suitable for my family. I realize now that this was a big mistake.

Firstly, when we arrived nobody was there to meet us. There should have been transport from the airport to the hotel but there wasn't. We were able to get a taxi, but only after waiting for an hour in the hot sun!

Secondly, when we arrived at the hotel, we found that only one room was reserved. All the other hotels on the island were full so four of us had to stay in one room.

Thirdly, the hotel wasn't a modern building only five minutes walk from sea. It was a small, old place situated in a mountain at least thirty minutes drive to the nearest beach.

And lastly, when we eventually met the tour guide, she was extremely rude to us. I don't think she should have been so impolite. She didn't help us at all.

You can imagine how angry I feel about spending a lot of money for a holiday which ought to have been better organized.

Yours sincerely,

David Johnston
